

Accra electric vehicle policy

Accra electric vehicle policy

The President, Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo Addo to launch Ghana's new Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy in Dubai, United Arab Emirates at the ongoing Conference of Parties 28 (COP28). The policy is to create an enabling environment to drive electric vehicle uptake in Ghana.

Accra, Dec. 15, GNA - To reduce the effects of climate change and commit to environmental sustainability, economic growth, and global climate goals, President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo, has on behalf of the Ministry of Transport launched the National Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy.

Accra, Dec. 1, GNA - Mr Kwaku Ofori Asiamah, Minister for Transport, will on Saturday, December 2, 2023, join President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo to launch Ghana's new Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy. The launch is part of the ongoing Conference of Parties 28 (COP28) in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

A statement copied to the Ghana News Agency in Accra said the policy was to create an enabling environment to drive electric vehicle uptake in Ghana. It would also provide market signals and help to decarbonise the transport sector in line with Ghana's National Energy Transition Plan 2022- 2070, and global commitments on climate change.

To reduce the effects of climate change and commit to environmental sustainability, economic growth, and global climate goals, President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo, has on behalf of the Ministry of Transport launched the National Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy.

Accra, Dec. 1, GNA &#8211; Mr Kwaku Ofori Asiamah, Minister for Transport, will on Saturday, December 2, 2023, join President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo to launch Ghana's new Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy.

The statement said the ministry believed that the policy would be a living document that would be updated when the need arises to keep up with the changing dynamism in the industry and other commitments.

It said the core values and principles of the policy included the health and Safety in the use of electric vehicles, equity and fairness, circular economic principles and practices, battery recycling and inclusivity.

The Minister to Transport, Kwaku Ofori Asiamah, will on Saturday, 2023 join President Nana Addo Danquah Akufo Addo to launch Ghana's new Electric Vehicle (EV) Policy in Dubai, United Arab Emirates at the Ongoing Conference of Parties (28COP 28).

The National Electric Vehicle Policy is expected to provide market signals and help to decarbonize the carbon sector in line with Ghana's Energy Transition Plan 2022-2070 and global commitment on climate change.

The core values and principles of the policy includes the health and safety in the use of electric vehicles, Equity and Fairness, Circular Economic Principles and Practice, Battery Recycling and Inclusivity.

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://sumthingtasty.co.za/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

