I am reviewing this because I was given a free sample to review. Seemed to be lasting ok and with a portion made from recycled batteries (although small) it is better than nothing!

I'm reviewing this product because I got a free sample from Ocado. Thank you, Ocado, for encouraging me to be a greener person. I am using the batteries for my son's toys, and they are excellent.

I received these for free from Ocado to review. They're currently used in our Wii controllers and seem to be lasting well. It's handy that they come pre-charged. They're made of 4% recycled batteries - I hope this figure will go up in the future. It's a good start though. Overall I'm happy with the product and its pricing.

I'm reviewing this product because I got a free sample from Ocado. I think I expected the charger too as they're quite expensive for just the batteries. But so far they've lasted well and rechargeables are the way to go to reduce waste.

Ocado sent me a free sample to review. I had expected this pack of AA Batteries to arrive with a charger, as I have seen some at a similar price with the charger included. However I can always buy one and agree with the principle of recharging batteries. I already use a portable DAB Radio with a rechargeable battery which I plug in.
