Hiralco Company Limited

Registering your company with Companies House can be time-consuming and confusing with all the industry jargon. At Mint Formations, we make your company formation experience as simple as possible.

Usually, when you register directly with Companies House, you must supply them with a wealth of paperwork, including a Memorandum of Association and your Articles of Association. You then have to fill out all the necessary forms and processes. If anything were to go wrong, you'd be responsible for all correspondence to sort things out.

When you choose Mint for your Companies House registration, you'll get a 5-star rated service. We're proud to say that our customers have awarded us a 97% positive rating, and we're committed to providing exceptional support.

Mint Formations helped us form our company and register it with ease. Their guidance and quick responses made it seem like a very easy process with all our details safe and surely verified at our convenience.

Our business address service is specially designed to protect your home address privacy while adding credibility to your brand among customers, partners and vendors. You can establish your presence in the UK with our prestigious London address and save thousands on office rentals. What's more:
