Industrial waterproof case

Our hand-built cases are designed, manufactured and shipped from Sherman Texas straight to your doorstep at a lower cost than our American-made competitors due to our Direct to Consumer approach. Our build quality meets and exceeds our competitors and we strive to produce a product that will last a lifetime at an honest affordable price.

I have multiple cases from "major" brands and these Condition 1 cases meet or exceed all of those more expensive brands quality. Wish I knew about these when I was in the military...

Throughout my many years of military service I was privy to using a wide variety of Pelican cases. Comparing this Condition 1 to the Pelican brand, I must admit, I am very impressed.

So Good I had to Buy Another! These are the perfect alternative to the higher priced options out there. So good I had to buy another. Sturdy and spacious, plus, love the customizable foam.

The trunk worked out perfectly. I strapped it on the back luggage rack of a Cam Am F-3 Spyder motorcycle. The price, the light weight was perfect for this application. I will definitely recommend this product.
