Denmark is a Scandinavian country located in northern Europe. The country covers a total area of 1,370,000 square miles. According to the 2011 census, the country had an estimated population of 5,671,050.

As shown in the Denmark Political Map, Denmark is the southern-most of the Nordic countries. It is bordered by Sweden to the south-west, Norway and Germany to the south. The country also borders both the Baltic and the North Sea.

The Denmark Political Map shows the national capital, major cities, regions, counties, and other political divisions of the country. The international boundaries of the country are also shown in the map.

Copenhagen is the capital city of Denmark and is marked in the map with a red dot enclosed in a square. With an urban population of 1,199,224, it is the largest city in the country. It is the major cultural, administrative, and scientific center of Denmark. Copenhagen is one of the most eco-friendly cities in the world.

The Central Denmark Region is the largest area in the country. The Kingdom of Denmark is a unitary parliamentary democracy and a constitutional monarchy whereby the Prime Minister is the head of the government and the Monarch is the head of state. Presently, Helle Thorning-Schmidt is the Prime Minister of Denmark and Margrethe II is the Monarch.
