Senior Editor Carlos Rosado van der Gracht is a Mexican expedition/Canadian photographer and adventure leader. Born in M?rida, Carlos holds multimedia, philosophy, and translation degrees from universities in Mexico, Canada and Norway.

The COVID-19 pandemic and its economic fallout have forced at least 40 private schools in Yucat?n to permanently shut down. Mexico's association of private schools has expressed grave concern over the situation and has warned about an educational gap that will result from the closures. Private schools in Mexico are plentiful and attended by students's;

Cristobal left Yucatan a little parting gift on the way to Louisiana. And it explains the odd odor many residents noticed last night and this morning after the storm left. No, it wasn't overloaded septic systems or contaminated groundwater. Cristobal blew gaseous vapors from lagoons in the Peninsula's north down to us, he said. Meteorologist's;

Wigs may droop and sequins may tarnish. But M?rida's first full-force Pride celebration is going full-steam ahead, no matter what the weather forecast threatens. Like with many activities shut down when the pandemic arrived in 2019, the Marcha de la Diversidad Sexual -- or Pride M?rida, as it is known this year -- is expected to draw's;
